ST. ALPHONSUS & AVE MARIA MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. Alphonsus, St. John's & Ave Maria Parishes is to proclaim and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His Church through liturgy, education, community service, social events, and witness for Christ who has blessed our lives in the larger community of Tipton, Haywood & Lauderdale Counties and beyond. Our parish life is centered on the Eucharist during which we celebrate, in joy, the presence of the Risen Lord among us.

Consider offering or attending Mass, or visiting a church to pray before the Blessed Sacrament for yourself or a loved one's birthday, thanking God for the gift of family and life. If you would like to have your name added to the birth day list please call the parish office at 901-476-8140

Prayer for the sick and those in need:

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.

For Our Little Saints

God can make so much of what we offer. Jesus took those five loaves July 28, 2024 of bread and two fish and make it enough to feed over 5,000 people with some leftover! Our little acts of kindness are often amplified and mean so much to those around us. This week do something nice for someone in your home.

Ordinary

Prayer by St. Thomas Aquinas Grant Me, O Lord my God, A mind to know you, A heart to seek you, Wisdom to find you, Conduct pleasing to you, Faithful perseverance In waiting for you, And hope of finally embracing you. Amen.

Saint Thomas Aquinas was born to a noble family in Italy and the youngest of at least nine children. Because he was a younger sibling he was not expected to lead the family. He was expected to join a Benedictine monastery like his uncle and become an Abbot at the Benedictine monastery. So when he was 5 years old he was taken to the monastery to study until he was 13 years old. He left the monastery and eventually went to college and learned more about his faith. There he met a Dominican friar and soon decided to joined the order despite his parents wishes. His parents believed that the Benedictine monastery was the only order that was appropriate for him and his family's noble heritage. His mother sent his brothers to bring him back home and there he was under house arrest for nearly a year before his mother arranged for his sisters to let him escape because she was unable to admit that she was wrong for not letting him follow God's will. In today's Gospel, St. Thomas Aquinas would most likely say that it fits in with his philosophy of proving God's existence. We see a miracle occur where Jesus takes care of both the physical and spiritual well being of his followers. He does the impossible and feeds thousands of people with barely any food at all. God can do the impossible. We need to trust in God.

Prayer

Grant me grace, O merciful God, to desire ardently all that is pleasing to Thee, to examine it prudently, to acknowledge it truthfully, and to accomplish it perfectly, for the praise and glory of Thy name. Amen.

Mary, Untier of Knots, a Marian devotion, A German couple was experiencing difficulties or "knots "in their marriage. They prayed to Mary and on the 28th day their marriage was healed. The story was passed down generations and eventually a painting was commissioned to depict the story.

St. Thomas Aquinas devoted himself to a life of traveling, writing, teaching, and public preaching. His teachings and thoughts are still used to today in the formation of new religious leaders. He believed the existence of God could be proven in five ways; 1. Observing movement in the world as proof of God. 2. Observing cause and effect and identifying God as the cause of everything. 3. Concluding that the impermanent nature of beings proved the existence of a necessary bing, God, who originates only from within. 4. Noticing varying levels of human perfection and determining that a supreme, perfect being must therefore exist. 5. Knowing that natural beings could not have intelligence without it being granted to them it by God. He wrote close to 60 works in his lifetime that greatly influenced the church to this day.

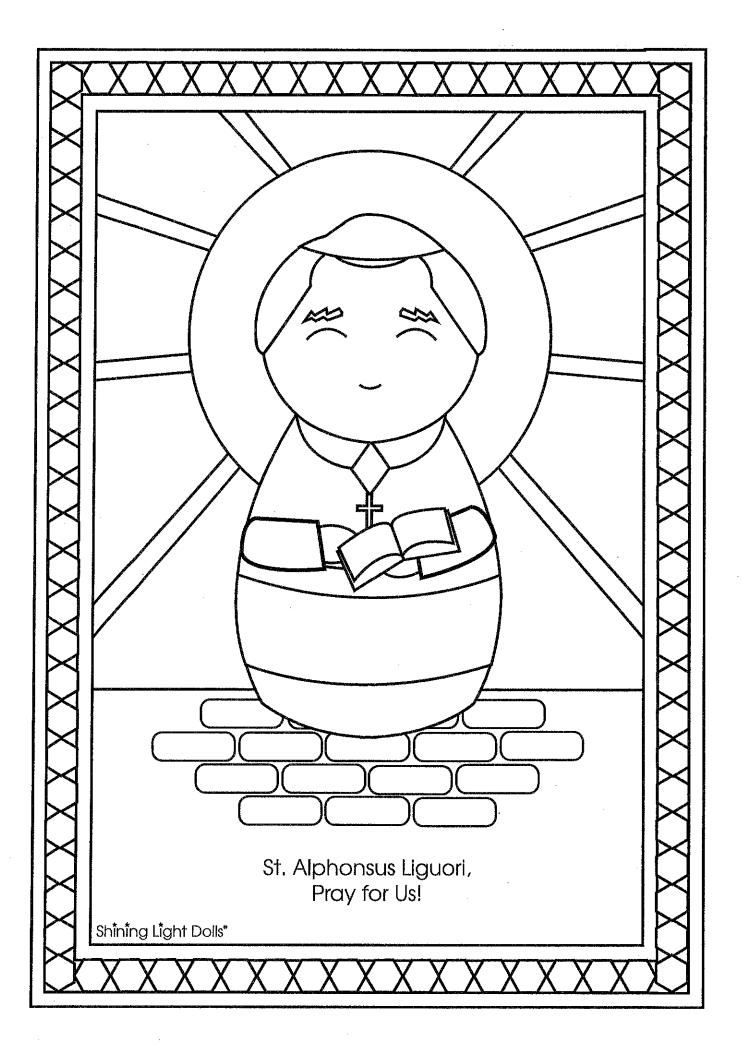

St. Alphonsus Mary de Liguori, Doctor of the Church 1696-1787

Feast Day August 2

Born on September 21 at Marianelli near Naples, Italy, the son of a captain of the royal galleys, he received his doctorate in both canon and civil law at the University of Naples when only sixteen and practiced law very successfully for the next eight years. He abandoned the practice of law when through an oversight he lost an important case, decided to become a priest, joined the Oratorians, and was ordained in 1726. He served as a missionary around Naples for two years, taught for a year, and in 1730, at the invitation of Bishop Thomas Falcoia, whom he had met while teaching. He moved to Scala and in 1732 organized the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer [the Redemporists], devoted to mission work, and using a hospice of the nuns at Scala for headquarters, with Bishop Falcoia as nominal superior. In1733 all the members of Alphonsus' group except one lay brother left to found their own congregation. New postulants were recruited, and in 1734 a second foundation was made at Villa degli Schiavi, and Alphonsus went there to live. Despite all the difficulties, the congregation grew, and in 1743, on the death of Bishop Falcoia, a general council elected Alphonsus superior; Pope Benedict XIV approved the rule of the men in 1749 and of the women the following year. During this time Alphonsus was personally active in preaching missions in rural areas and small villages but was increasingly devoting himself to writing. He inaugurated a program designed to reform the clergy, monasteries, and the entire diocese, and worked to alleviate the condition of the poor and the ignorant. Ill and inflicted with rheumatism that left him paralyzed until his death, he resigned his see in 1775 and retired to Nocera. Meanwhile, during this entire period, he had been engaged in running disputes with the anticlerical Marguis Bernard Tanucci, who governed Naples, 1734-76, as Prime Minister of Charles III of Spain, who had conquered Naples in 1734. Tanucci refused to grant royal approval for the Redemptorists and constantly threatened to suppress Alphonsus' congregation as disguised Jesuits (the Jesuits had been expelled from Spanish domains in 1767). In 1780, with a new governor in power, Alphonsus was tricked into signing and submitting for royal approval a new rule that completely altered his own rule, which had been papally approved in 1750; when this fraudulent role was approved by the King at Naples, a storm burst around Alphonsus. Pope Pius VI refused to accept the new rule, recognized the Redemptorists in the Papal States as the true Redemptorists, and a new superior was appointed to replace Alphonsus. For the last few years of his life, in addition to his ill health, he experienced deep spiritual depression and he went through a "dark night of the soul." But this period was replaced by a time of peace and light when he experienced visions, ecstasies, made prophecies that were later fulfilled, and reportedly performed miracles. He died on August 1 at Nocera. Alphonsus wrote profusely on moral, theological, and ascetical subjects was constantly engaged in combating anticlericalism and Jansenism, and was involved in several controversies over probabilism. His devotional writings were most successful, especially his Glories of Mary. He was canonized in 1839 and was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1871 by Pope Pius IX.

He is the patron of those with arthritis.

TINY BLESSINGS MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP!!/¡¡EL MINISTERIO DE PEQUEÑAS BENDICIONES NECESITA TU AYUDA!!

Due to unexpected inventory issues at the Mid-South Food Bank and the diaper manufacturer, our Tiny Blessings Ministry is experiencing a serious shortage of diapers and wipes. We serve 40 families per month and we really need diapers in sizes 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 as well as pull-ups in sizes 2T/3T, 3T/4T, and 4T/5T. For each pack of diapers, we need a pack of wipes as well. Any and all donations will be greatly appreciated!! Please bring them to the parish hall. In lieu of diapers, financial donations will be used to buy diapers as needed, please write Tiny Blessings in the memo space. The babies and moms that our Tiny Blessing ministry supports thanks you! For questions, contact Dave Hessling.
