Prayer for the sick and those in need:

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.

For Our Little Saints

Ordinary

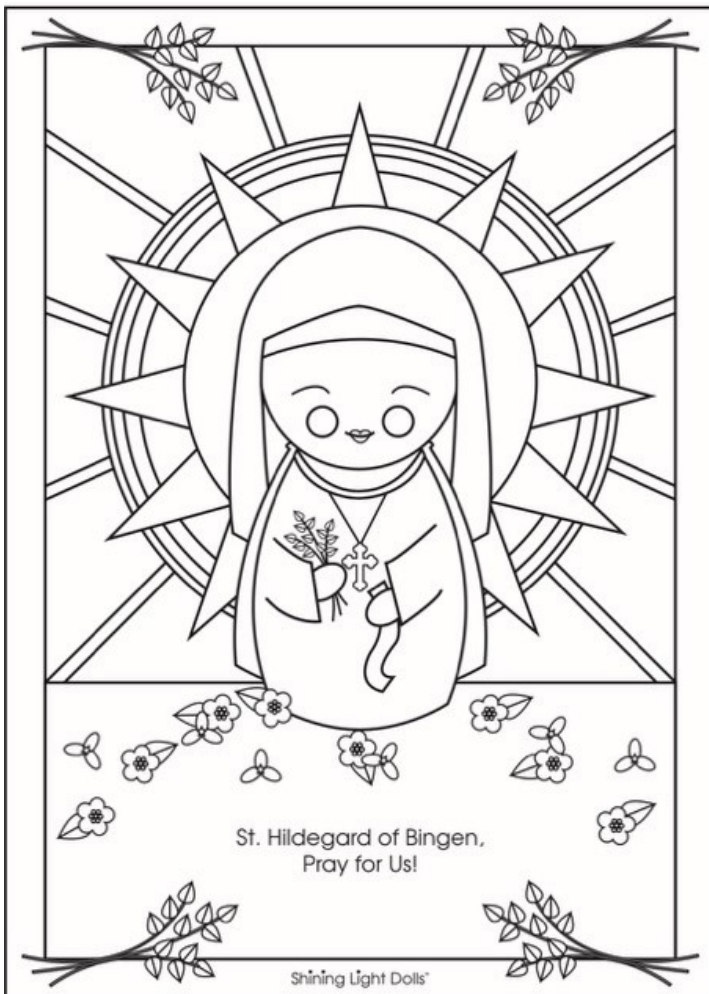

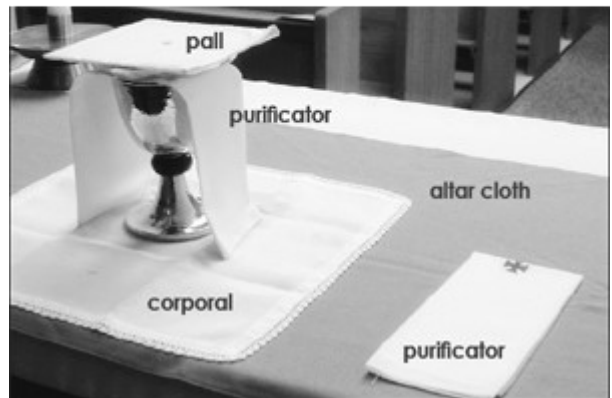

In today's Gospel, we hear of a man, Bartimaeus, who had a great obstacle in his life, blindness. What can we learn from his interaction with Jesus? We can learn that while we all have obstacles in our lives that we need to remember not to let them become between our relationship with God.

October 27, 2024

Prayer

Father, Source of Life, you have bestowed on St. Hildegard of Bingen many excellent graces. Help us to follow her example of mediating on your ineffable Majesty and to follow you so that we, amidst the darkness of this world, recognise the Light of your clarity to cling to you without fail. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Do you know the names of these items?
Can you see in Mass when they are used?

Saint Hildegard of Bingen had many visions given to her by God. Her visions started as early as age 3 but she did not recognize them as visions until she was a bit older. St. Hildegard was a renaissance woman, which means that she was very good at many different things. She was a composer, writer, artist, prophet, poet, mystic, pharmacist, and much more. She was an abbess in her monastery and led her fellow nuns to move to a new convent. St. Hildegard held the unity of God's creations and men and women in that world with high respect. She was canonized (or made a Saint) in 2010.

All Saint's Day is celebrated on November 1st. This day is set aside to remember all the Holy men and women in the church. It includes all the Holy people that the church knows about but also those that are unknown to the church. It is also a Holy Day of obligation, which means that Catholics are expected to go to mass on that day. Do you or your family have a special Saint in your lives that you can remember on this day?

On November 2nd we celebrate All Souls Day. This is a day set aside within the Church to remember our loved ones that have died. In Mexico and other Hispanic countries this is the 2nd day of Día de Los Muertos. We can remember our loved ones but also pray for them on their journey from Purgatory to Heaven.
