Scripture verses

October 10th

God's Spirit is right alongside helping us along. If we don't know how or what to pray, it doesn't matter. He does our praying in and for us, making prayer out of our wordless sighs, our aching groans. He knows us far better than we know ourselves...and keeps us present before God. That's why we can be so sure that every detail in our lives of love for God is worked into something good.
-Romans 8:26-28:11

October 11th

Rejoice in the Lord your God, for he has given you the autumn rains in righteousness. He sends you abundant showers, both autumn and spring rains, as before. The threshing floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
-Joel 2:23-25

Thursday, October 15, 2020

6:00pm

Holy Rosary Church

4851 Park Avenue

All are welcome. Sponsored by the Holy Rosary Parish Respect-Life Committee.

Prayer for the sick and those in need:

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.

“Per direction from the diocese, the pews and other touchpoints should be sanitized between masses. We need parishioners willing to wipe down the pews after each weekend mass. It only takes a few minutes, but we need more willing hands to wipe end caps, tops of the pew backs and front edge of the seats to help lessen the chance of spreading COVID-19 in our church.”
